SANTA BARBARA - The Santa Barbara County Deputy Sheriffs Association announced the results of their Board elections and new officers today.

Board of Directors:

Jazzmine DeForest
John Tena
Michael Kuhbander
Michael Scherbarth
Dan Calderon

Executive Officers:

Brad Welch- Secretary
Javier Antunez- Treasurer
Travis Henderson- 2nd Vice President
Todd Johnson- 1st Vice President
Matthew McFarlin- President

In a letter to association members, newly elected SBCDSA President Matt McFarlin expressed appreciation to the outgoing President, Chris Corbett, and Vice President, Dave Brookshire, for their dedication, hard work and sacrifices on behalf of custody deputies, deputy sheriffs, district attorney investigators and dispatchers represented by the association.

McFarlin also listed the issues that will remain the focus of the association, including the efforts to secure a labor contract that will allow the SBSO to restore working conditions and the ability to recruit and retain skilled professionals to work as sworn personnel in Santa Barbara County.
